HONOR CLUB SCORE SHEET HELPFUL HINTS

1. Self-explanatory
2. (A,B,C) self-explanatory
3. Note: You can only earn 65 points maximum in this section. 65% of the club members need to participate in the activity to claim credit. This is based on your enrollment form as of March 31st.
 - A. A majority of your club meetings included all three: project education/work, business meeting and recreation/social activities.
 - B. Self-explanatory
 - C. Club tour or field trip that is educational. Examples: tour to see member's projects, trip to fabric store, trip to lumber yard, trip to pizza shop (nutrition club), etc.
 - D. Examples: plant flowers or paint at fairgrounds, donation of time or money to a charity. Generally, anything a club does that benefits the community will qualify.
 - E. Self-explanatory
 - F. Self-explanatory
4.
 - A. Examples: dairy judging clinic, subject-matter advisor's update, educational clinics sponsored by non-4-H groups, a sewing class. Our purpose is to encourage advisors and junior leaders to continually update themselves.
 - B. Examples: new advisor training, advisor training programs, Jr. Leader meetings with programs designed to "take back to your club", etc. Also, if you attended two that qualify in 4A, then one of them can be used here.
 - C. Self-explanatory
5.
 - A. All members (listed on Enrollment Forms on March 31st) that exhibited their completed projects at the fair.
 - B. Self-explanatory
 - C. Livestock Clinics, Non-Livestock Project Clinics, SPIN Clubs, etc.
6. Secretary Book and Treasurer Book must be turned in by September 1st. Books should be complete.
7. Self-explanatory. Deadline adherence is crucial to the 4-H program running efficiently & successfully. The 4-H Committee uses the activity fee to finance County 4-H awards, the Honor Club program, 4-H promotional items and supply needed audiovisual materials and equipment.
8. Self-explanatory
